"The obligation to provide justice for all means that the poor have the single most urgent economic claim on the conscience of the nation...As individuals and as a nation, therefore, we are called to make a fundamental "option for the poor." The obligation to evaluate social and economic activity from the viewpoint of the poor and the powerless arises from the radical command to love one's neighbor as one's self."

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, Economic Justice for All, 1986)
