

UNIV 1104 - Topics in Problem Solving

- Practice problem-solving, critical & analytical thinking, and logical thought development
- Investigate spatial relationships & probability and reasoning sections of standardized tests such as GRE & LSAT

UNIV 1105 - Improving Grammar, Usage, and Style

- Review rules of standard written English and principles of style
- Practice proofreading and editing papers
- Learn to write in a clearer style

UNIV 1106 - Basic Report Writing for College and Beyond

(prerequisite ENGL 1102)

- Practice composing short technical and business documents
- Learn techniques of audience analysis and correct grammar and mechanics
- Select topics related to your major

UNIV 1107 - Critical Thinking: Theory and Individual Analysis

- Develop higher level thinking skills
- Engage in creative problem solving
- Share your ideas and opinions in group discussions and response writing

UNIV 1109 – Resources for Research

- Investigate your selected topic through library and online resources
- Conduct a personal research project through interview, survey or observation
- Critically assess research tools and information you find in oral and written reports

UNIV 1112 - Improving Your Reading Rate

- Improve your reading rate and fluency while maintaining your reading comprehension
- Wouldn't it be great to read your textbooks and assigned materials faster?!

UNIV 1120 - Online @ UGA: Computer & Information Literacy

1-credit; graded S/U

An introduction to:

- Campus network resources & email
- Software used in courses
- Web searches and evaluation of content

UNIV 2201 – Introduction to the Research Paper

- Review basics of writing the academic research paper
- Learn to use library resources, gather & document sources, and avoid plagiarism
- Create a voice and style suitable to audience and purpose