

President's 2007 Fulfilling the Dream Award Nominations

The University of Georgia will present the Fourth Annual President's "Fulfilling the Dream" Awards at the Freedom Breakfast on Friday, January 12, 2007 in the Georgia Hall of the Tate Student Center. Our theme for this year's event is "Connecting Lives through Unity: The Power of the Dream". Awards will be presented to individuals from throughout Athens-Clarke County and surrounding areas who have made significant efforts to build bridges of unity and understanding.

AWARD GUIDELINES. Award nominations should be based on significant contributions an individual has made toward the spirit of the King Federal Holiday: equal opportunity and justice for all. Nominations must be forwarded to the Office of Institutional Diversity, The University of Georgia, c/o Awards Selection Committee, 119 Holmes/Hunter Academic Building, Athens, Georgia, 30602-6119, no later than December 13, 2006.

The awards will be presented annually on the occasion of the Freedom Breakfast. Award recipients will be selected from the list of submitted nominations.

NOMINATION PACKET. In your letter of nomination, please (1) include the nominee's name, address, and telephone number, and (2) describe the nominee's acts supporting the application of Dr. King's ideology and his leadership. Also, include two letters of recommendation.

SELECTION CRITERIA. The following criteria will be used by the Awards Selection Committee in determining the recipients:

- Infusion of Dr. King's teachings (i.e., nonviolence, racial harmony, service) into the course of daily living and instruction.
- Utilization of Dr. King's philosophy and what it represents to reduce tensions, resolve conflict and foster goodwill among individuals and groups.
- Promotion of the spirit of King's example of volunteerism and citizenship to undertake community service activities to address critical issues/problems.
- Significant efforts to use Dr. King's teachings of social justice and equity to build bridges of unity and understanding.

Do your part to reward an individual who has made significant efforts to build bridges and understanding. Nominate someone for the President's "Fulfilling the Dream" awards!
