

Part II—Short Essay

Listed below are seven prompts. Please choose three and answer them to the best of your ability in paragraph form (1-2 paragraphs for each prompt). Please indicate which prompt you are addressing before each answer. Please attach your answers to your application and remember to include your name on it.

- If you could do anything without the fear of failure, what would it be and why?
- Which superhero/villain would you like to be and why? Or invent your own superhero. (What would you call yourself? What powers would you possess? What is your alter ego? Etc.)
- If you could live in any point in history, when would it be and why?
- Design your own major. What courses would be required for this major? What would you do after you graduated with this major?
- You are alone in an elevator, singing along to the song playing on the loud speaker. When the door opens on the next floor, your professor gets on the elevator with you. What is your reaction? Did you stop dancing? What song was it? What happens next?
- Say you found 25 dollars on the street. What would buy with it? Don't be afraid to be creative!
- What is your favorite color, animal and thing in nature and why?

Part III—Statement of Understanding

I understand that my housing assignment at Rutherford Hall is contingent upon being admitted to the Franklin Residential College (FRC) and that once accepted University Housing will remove my name from consideration for any other on-campus housing options for that cycle. Finally, I understand that the Franklin Residential College reserves the right to renew FRC membership and residence at Rutherford Hall based on my regular participation in FRC events and activities.
