

2008 GEORGIA GRADUATE STUDENT INTERDISCIPLINARY CONFERENCE MARCH 22 · ATHENS

THEME: “CONSTRUCTING AN INTERDISCIPLINARY COMMUNITY OF SCHOLARS”

The Graduate Student Association is proud to host this year's the 8th Annual GGSIC. All students are encouraged to attend. Over forty students will present poster and paper presentations this year. The conference will feature a keynote address from the Dean of the Graduate School Dr. Maureen Grasso, and a panel discussion moderated by the Associate Dean of the Graduate School Dr. Craig Edelbrock. The panel discussion will feature three distinguished faculty at UGA: Dr. Russell Malmberg (Botany), Associate Dean of the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences; Dr. Richard A. Dluhy, Professor, Department of Chemistry; and Dr. Ted L. Gragson, Professor and Associate Director of the Sustainable Human Ecosystems Laboratory, Department of Anthropology.

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Maureen Grasso

Featured Sessions

Panel Discussion

Poster and Paper Presentations

Where

2nd Floor, Student Learning Center

When

10:00-4:30 p.m.

To view abstracts of the submissions this year visit our website at

<http://www.uga.edu/gsa/ggsic.html>