

study abroad

ARMENIA

Maymester 2010

the program

- International Business & Affairs
- Regional Geo-Politics
- Economics of Transition
- Development Economics
- History, Religion and Environment
- Service learning activities
 - Habitat for Humanity projects
 - Youth development camps
 - Rural schools and orphanages
- Armenian language (beginner) things to do ...

- tour country's leading enterprises
 - brandy & wine production
 - high technologies
 - food processing
 - oriental rug & carpet production
- visit major international organizations
 - UN, EU, WTO, World Bank, US Embassy and more
- visit the Government and Parliament
- experience Armenia's culture and history
- visit ancient monuments and museums
- spend evenings socializing and exploring Yerevan's ethnic restaurants, cafés and clubs

information

The estimated cost of the program is $2,100*. It includes accommodations, field trips, three meals/day, visa, insurance, admission fees and language instruction. Excluded are: UGA tuition, fees, airfare, and spending money.

HOPE covers tuition & fees for eligible students.

contacts

Dr. Glenn C.W. Ames
Program Director
(706) 542 7890
games@uga.edu

Vahé Heboyan
Program Assistant
(706) 461 0258
VaheHeboyan@Gmail.com

* for current information and forms please visit:

www.uga.edu / internationalpso / armenia