

JAZZ UP YOUR SUMMER IN EUROPE!

Program Dates: May 17 – June 4, 2010

Jazz : Understanding the Tools of the Trade

- ♪ For players and non-players: come to Europe in May to study America's indigenous art form in the hills of northern Italy.
- ♪ Investigate the elements that make up the music and provide an understanding of the art form. From New Orleans to the Big Bands, from be-bop to hip-hop, we will study the timeline of jazz and classic albums by major artists ranging from Ellington to Miles Davis to Herbie Hancock.
- ♪ Examine jazz as a springboard to many facets of the contemporary music industry including the topics of desktop production and film scoring.
- ♪ Enhanced appreciation and listening skills for non-players; sharpened technique and improvisational skills for players through applied study and small group performance.

Program Features:

- ♪ 3-credit hour course
- ♪ Excursions - On the weekends, students take a break from the rigors of study to explore the Italian culture. Situated in the northeastern corner of Italy, Alessandria provides an ideal launch pad for exploration of the Piedmont, Lombardia and Liguria region and beyond. Students will visit museums and concert halls, hear local performances, and absorb the Italian culture.
- ♪ Program Fee: $4500 (plus applicable UGA tuition). This cost includes housing, the use of the Conservatory facilities, breakfast and dinner. The program also includes all transportation to and from the Milan Airport, full coverage health insurance while under the auspices of the program, weekend transportation, and the cost of group activities on our excursions. Air fare is not included.
- ♪ Application Deadline: February 5, 2010. $500 deposit required, refundable if cancellation is received before March 6, 2010.
