

“Be a Santa to a Senior”

The gerontology students and faculty at The University of Georgia are participating in a community service program, “Be a Santa to a Senior,” organized by Home Instead Senior Care. We are collecting any of the following (new) items to be wrapped and given to older adults who have been identified by local non-profit organizations. Deadline to turn in the unwrapped gifts is Dec.10. Contact the UGA Institute of Gerontology at 425-3222 or email aglass@uga.edu for more information.
