2. Promote an environment where members of the LGBT community do not have to censor their identities.
3. Promote an atmosphere where members of the LGBT community can participate fully, equally, and openly in campus life without fear of discrimination and/or harassment.
4. Promote a safe and affirming place for LGBT people by offering an atmosphere and personal relationship of respect, fairness, and trust.
5. Serve as a resource of information for students, faculty, and staff having questions about LGBT issues, and be willing to refer students to support and resources on campus and in the community.
