UGA Upward Bound Career Work Study

Please Provide Us With Your Comments

This handbook was written in an effort to provide career work-study students and supervisors with information that will help provide guidance for a successful career work-study. However, it is a dynamic document which will require continuous updating. In order for the Upward Bound staff to serve the informational needs of our career work-study students and supervisors we welcome your comments about the career work-study handbook and additional information that it might provide. Please give us your feedback on the lines below and forward it to one of the Upward Bound staff members. Thanks in advance for your help.
