

THE PULITZER LEGACY IN GEORGIA

- Held at the historic Jekyll Island Club, the event opens Monday evening, 27 October and closes Thursday evening, 30 October.
- Registration for the entire event is $500 and includes admission to all events, including the opening and closing receptions, author readings and book signings, Q & A sessions, School of Ecology presentations, all breakfast and dinner meals plus one lunch, and a guided tour of historic Jekyll Island.
 - Individual ticket for Monday evening 27 October Opening Reception featuring a reading by Natasha Trethewey is $125.00.
 - Day tickets are $200.00 for 28 October, 29 October, or 30 October.
- Event registration and day tickets are available by advance payment only. Tickets are nonrefundable.
- Call 1-800-542-3481 to register by credit card or mail check payment (payable to The Georgia Review) to 012 Gilbert Hall UGA, Athens, GA 30602-9009. Online registration available at www.uga.edu/garev.
- The registration fee does not include lodging. Lodging reservations should be made through the Jekyll Island Club, 1-800-535-9547 or online, www.jekyllclub.com. Guests registering for The Pulitzer Legacy in Georgia event receive a 25% discount on room rates.
- Natasha Trethewey (Monday-Tuesday), Hank Klibanoff (Tuesday-Wednesday), Stephen Dunn (Wednesday-Thursday), and Edward J. Larson (Wednesday-Thursday) will present readings, participate in panel discussions and Q & A sessions, and attend informal gatherings with event guests.
- The program schedule allows participants free time to explore Jekyll Island and enjoy the beautiful coastal setting.

The Pulitzer Legacy in Georgia is a production of The Georgia Review and The University of Georgia. Presenting sponsor is the Jekyll Island Club, with additional support generously provided by the Jekyll Island Authority, the Jekyll Island Foundation, the Jekyll Island Museum, The University of Georgia Alumni Association, Rich Products Corporation, The Odum School of Ecology at UGA, Ameris Bank, the Brunswick-Glynn County Library, the Brunswick-Golden Isles Chamber of Commerce, The Brunswick News, Mr. John Vance Hughes, and others to be announced.

THE GEORGIA REVIEW

The University of Georgia